

ECU Women's Commission strategic moves: 2023 recap and 2024 outlook

Just over a year ago the new Commission for Women's Chess of the European Chess Union was appointed. In this online event, we would like to reflect on the past year and give an overview of the events we have held. Subsequently, we will give an outlook on what we have planned for the upcoming year. Additionally, would like to invite everyone from the chess society to leverage this forum as an opportunity to make their voices heard and tell us about your ideas, event wishes, ...
